

Writing

Writing to inform and poetry

Reading

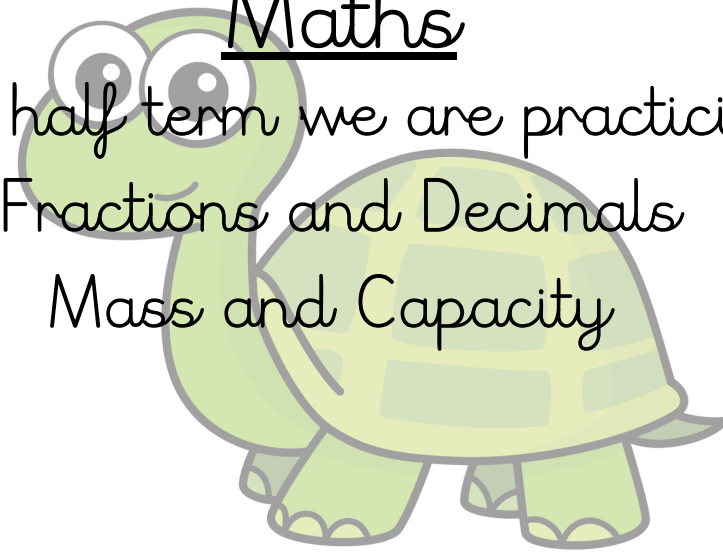

Children will be practicing their questioning, inference, clarifying, evaluating and prediction skills.

Maths

This half term we are practicing

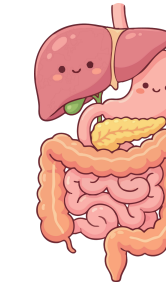

Fractions and Decimals

Mass and Capacity

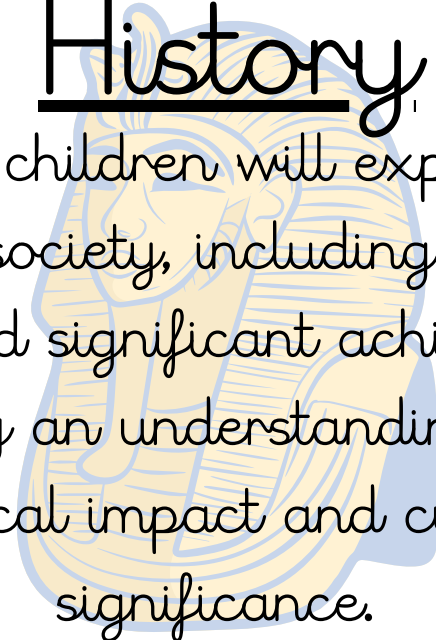

Science

We are learning about the digestive system including teeth in all living things, including humans.

History

In this unit, children will explore ancient Egyptian society, including daily life, beliefs, and significant achievements, fostering an understanding of its historical impact and cultural significance.

Lower Key Stage 2

Rowan

Laurel

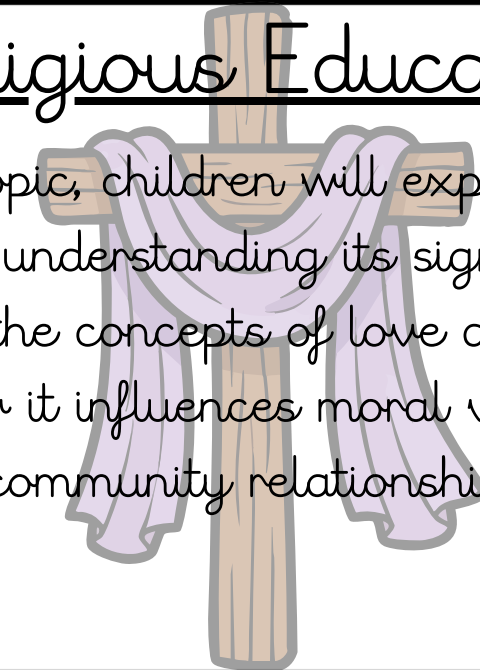

Oak

Spring 2

Religious Education

In this topic, children will explore Jesus' sacrifice, understanding its significance in Christianity, the concepts of love and redemption, and how it influences moral values and community relationships.

PE

Dance

Dodgeball

Music

More Musical Styles

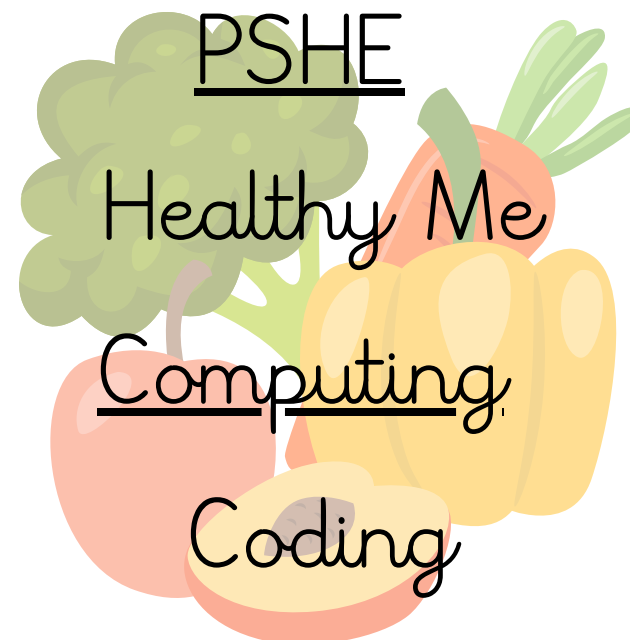

PSHE

Healthy Me

Computing

Coding

Art

Ancient Egyptian Scrolls

Home Learning

Reading 2 x weekly recorded in reading record. TTRS and spellings