

CHURCHFIELD CE ACADEMY NEWSLETTER

WEEKLY MESSAGE

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week at Churchfield our Year 5 and 6 children took part in the Ash Wednesday service at church. Thank you to the children who read during the service.

Also this week we have visited our KS1 classes to see the great learning happening. It was lovely to spend time in classes and the children were so proud to share their work. Thank you Peru, Brazil and Mexico classes!

We had a brilliant day yesterday for World Book Day, the children looked very comfy in their pyjamas and enjoyed sharing their favourite books with friends.

Wishing you a restful weekend.

ASPENS - NEW CHEF MANAGER

Our catering company Aspens are looking for a new Chef Manager for our school kitchen. The details of the job are attached. Please contact Aspens if you are interested. Thank you.

PARENT CONSULTATIONS

Don't forget to book your meeting with your child's class teacher for Tuesday 18th March. You can do this on Arbor.

AUTHOR VISIT

We were very pleased to welcome author Esther Marshall to Churchfield on Wednesday. Esther shared one of her stories with us, explained the process of writing a book and did a Q&A session. She also signed books for children after school. Thank you to everyone who bought something from Esther. If you didn't get to purchase her books and would still like to then please use the link below:

EASTER EVENTS

You may be aware via the CFA's Facebook page that we will have two Easter events on Thursday 3rd April.

During the school day the children will take part in a sponsored bunny run. The form is attached to this email. If you need it printed please pop into the school office where we will have printed copies available.

After school, there will be an Easter egg hunt. It is £3 per child and will take place in the Infant playground from 3.15pm.

Please send your money to the CFA account, details below:
